of the guard tooke them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.

27 And the king of Babylon smote
them, and put them to death in Riblah, in the land of Hamath: thus Judah was caried away captiue out of his

31 And it came to passe in the seven

CHAP. I.

1 The miserable estate of Ierusalem by reason of her sinne, 12 Shee complaineth of her grieve, 18 and confesseth Gods iudge-ment to be righteous.

How doeth the cite sit solitarie that was full of people: how is she become as a widow: She that was great among the nations, and prin-cesse among the prouinces, how is she become tributarie:

* Iob. 7. 3.

2 Shee * weepeth sore in the night,
and her teares are on her cheekes: among all her louers she hath none to comfort her, all her friends haue dealt treacherously with her, they are become her enemies.

† Heb. for the great-nesse of ser-uitude.

3 Judah is gone into captiuitie, because of affliction, and † because of great seruitude: she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors ouertook her betweene the straits.

4 The wayes of Zion do mourne,
because none come to the solemne feasts:
all her gates are desolate: her priests sigh: her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

5 Her aduersaries * are the chiefe,
her enemies prosper: for the LORD hath afflicted her: for the multitude of her transgressions, her * children are gone into captiuitie before the enemy.

* Jer. 51.

6 And from the daughter of Zion
all her beautie is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, & they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

7 Jerusalem remembered in the dayes of her affliction, and of her miseries, all her || pleasant things that she had in the dayes of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did helpe her, the aduersaries saw her, and did mocke at her Sabbaths.

|| Or, desire-
able.

8 Jerusalem hath grievously sinned,
there

therefore she[†] is remoued: all that honoured her, despise her, because they haue seene her nakednesse: yea, she sightheth and turneth backward.

9 Her filthines^{is} in her skirts, she remembreth not her last end, therefore she came downe wonderfully: shee had no comforter: O LORD, behold my affliction: for y^e enemy hath magnified himselfe.

10 The aduersarie hath spread out his hand vpon all her || pleasant things: for she hath seene that the heathen entred into her Sanctuarie, whom thou didst command that * they should not enter into thy congregation.

11 All her people sigh, they seek bread, they haue giuen their pleasant things for meate to || relieue the soule: see, O LORD, & consider: for I am become vile.

12 ¶ Is it nothing to you, all ye that passe by: behold and see, if there be any sorrow like vnto my sorrowe, which is done vnto me, wherewith the LORD hath afflicted me, in the day of his fierce anger.

13 From aboue hath he sent fire into my bones, and it preuaileth against them: he hath spread a net for my feete, he hath turned me backe: he hath made me desolate, and faint all the day.

14 The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand: they are wreathed, and come vp vpon my necke: he hath made my strength to fall, the LORD hath deliuered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise vp.

15 The LORD hath troden vnder foot all my mightie men in the midst of me: he hath called an assembly against mee, to crush my yong men. The LORD hath troden || the virgine, the daughter of Judah, as in a wine presse.

16 For these things I weepe, * mine eye, mine eye runneth downe with water, because the comforter that should relieue my soule is farre from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy preuailed.

17 Zion spreadeth forth her hands, and there is none to comfort her: the LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his aduersaries should bee round about him: Ierusalem is as a menstruous woman among them.

18 ¶ The LORD is * righteous, for I haue rebelled against his[†] commandment: heare, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow: my virgins and my yong men are gone into captiuitie.

19 I called for my louers, but they de- ceived me: my priests and mine elders gaue vp the ghost in the citie, while they sought their meate to relieue their soules

20 Behold, O LORD: for I am in distress: my * bowels are troubled: mine heart is turned within mee, for I haue grievously rebelled: abroad the sword bereaueth, at home there is as death.

21 They haue heard that I sigh, there is none to comfort me: all mine enemies haue heard of my trouble, they are glad that thou hast done it: thou wilt bring the day that thou hast || called, and they shall be like vnto me.

22 Let all their wickednes come before thee: and doe vnto them, as thou hast done vnto me for all my transgressions: for my sighes are many, and my heart is faint.

CHAP. II.

1 Ieremiah lamenteth the misery of Ierusalem.

20 He complaineth thereof to God.

How hath the LORD couered the daughter of Zion with a cloud, in his anger, and cast downe from heauen vnto the earth the beautie of Israel, and remembered not his footstool in the day of his anger:

2 The LORD hath swallowed vp all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied: he hath throwen downe in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah: he hath[†] brought them down to the ground: hee hath polluted the kingdome and the princes thereof.

3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the home of Israel: he hath drawen backe his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire which deuoureth round about.

4 He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an aduersary, and slew all that were[†] pleasant to the eye, in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he powred out his furie like fire.

5 The LORD was as an enemy: he hath swallowed vp Israel, hee hath swallowed vp all her palaces: he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

6 And he hath violently^{*} taken away his || tabernacle, as if it were of a garden, hee hath destroyed his places of the assem-

|| Or, faint.

11 Mine eyes doe faile with teares: my bowels are troubled: my liuer is powdered vpon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people, because the children and the sucklings swoone in the streets of the citie.

12 They say to their mothers, where is corne and wine: when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the citie, when their soule was powdered out into their mothers bosome.

16 All thine enemies haue opened their mouth against thee: they hisse and gnash the teeth: they say, we haue swallowed her vp: certainly this is the day that we looked for: we haue found, we haue seene it.

* Leuit. 26. 16. deut. 28. 15.

* Iere. 14. 17. chap. 1. 16.

19 Arise, cry out in the night: in the beginning of the watches powre out thine heart like water before the face of the Lord: lift vp thy handes toward him, for the life of thy yong children, that faint for hunger in the top of euery streete.

20 Behold, O LORD, and consider to whom thou hast done this: shall the women eat their fruit, and children of a spanne long: shall the priest and the prophet be slaine in the Sanctuary of the Lord?

|| Or, swaddled with their hands.

21 The yong and the old lye on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my yong men are fallen by the sword: thou hast slaine them in the day of thy anger: thou hast killed, and not pitied.

22 Thou hast called as in a solemn day my terrours round about, so that in the day of the LORDS anger, none escaped nor remained: those that I haue swaddled and brought vp, hath mine enemy consumed.

CHAP. III.

1 The faithfull bewaile their calamities. 22 By the mercies of God they nourish their hope. 37 They acknowledge Gods iustice. 55 They pray for deliuerance, 64 and vengeance on their enemies.

6 He hath set me in darke places, as they that be dead of old.

7 He hath hedged me about, that I cannot get out: hee hath made my chaine heauie.

8 Also when I cry and shout, he shutteth out my prayer.

9 Hee hath inclosed my wayes with heuven stone: he hath made my pathes crooked.

10 He was vnto me as a Beare lying in waite, and as a Lion in secret places.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Zion bewaileth her pitifull estate. 13 She confesseth her sinnes. 21 Edom is threatened. 22 Zion is comforted.

How is the gold become dimme! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuarie are polvred out in the top of euery streete.

2 The precious sonnes of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the worke of the hands of the potter!

3 Euen the || sea-monsters draw out the breast, they giue sucke to their young ones: the daughter of my people is become cruell, like the ostriches in the wilderness.

4 The tongue of the sucking child cleaueth to the roose of his mouth for thirst: the young children aske bread, and no man breaketh it vnto them.

5 They that did feede delicatly, are desolate in the streetes: they that were brought vp in scarlet, embrace dounge-hilles.

6 For the || punishment of the iniquitie of the daughter of my people, is greater then the punishment of the sinne of Sodom, that was * ouerthrowen as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.

7 Her Nazarites were purer then snow, they were whiter then milke, they were more ruddie in body then rubies, their polishing was of Saphir.

8 Their visage is † blacker then a cole: they are not knowen in the streetes: their skinne cleaueth to their bones: it is withered, it is become like a stick.

9 They that bee slaine with the sword, are better then they that be slaine with hunger: for these † pine away, stricken thorough for want of the fruits of the field.

10 The hands of the pitifull women haue * sodden their owne children, they were their meate in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

11 The L O R D hath accomplished his furie, he hath powred out his fierce anger, and hath kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath deuoured the foundations thereof.

12 The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world would not haue beleued, that the aduersarie and the enemye should haue entred into the gates of Ierusalem.

13 O For the sinnes of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that haue shed the blood of the iust in the midst of her:

14 They haue wandred as blind men in the streetes, they haue polluted themselves with blood, || so that men could not touch their garments.

15 They cryed vnto them; Depart yee, || it is vncleane, depart, depart, touch not, when they fled away and wandred: they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourne there.

16 The || anger of the L O R D hath diuided them, he will no more regard them: they respected not the persons of the priests, they fauoured not the elders.

22 The punishment of thine iniquitie is accomplished, O daughter of Zion, he will no more carie thee away into captiuitie: hee will visit thine iniquitie, O daughter of Edom, hee will discover thy sinnes.

THE BOOKE OF THE Prophet Ezekiel.

CHAP. I.

¹ The time of Ezekiels prophetic at Chebar. ⁴ His vision of foure Cherubims, ¹⁵ Of the foure wheelles, ²⁶ and of the glory of God.

NOW it came to passe in the thirtieth yeere, in the fourth moneth, in the fifth day of the moneth, (as I was among [†]the captiues by the riuer of Chebar) that the heauens were opened, and I saw visions of God.

² In the fifth day of the moneth, (which was the fifth yeere of king Jehoiakims captiuitie,)

³ The word of the LORD came expressely vnto [†]Ezekiel the Priest, the sonne of Buzi, in the land of the Caldeans, by the riuer Chebar, and the hand of the Lord was there vpon him.

⁴ AND I looked, and behold, a whirlewinde came out of the North, a great cloude, and a fire [†]infoldding it selfe, and a brightnesse was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire.

⁵ Also out of the midst thereof came the likenesse of foure liuing creatures, and this was their appearance: they had the likenesse of a man.

⁶ And euery one had foure faces, and euery one had foure wings.

⁷ And their feet were [†]straight feet, and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calves foot, and they sparkled like the colour of burnished brasle.

⁸ And they had the handes of a man vnder their wings on their foure sides, and they foure had their faces and their wings.

⁹ Their wings were ioyned one to another, they turned not when they went: they went euery one straight forward.

¹⁰ As for the likenesse of their faces, they foure had the face of a man, and the face of a lyon on the right side, and they foure had the face of an ore on the left side: they foure also had the face of an eagle.

¹¹ Thus were their faces: and their wings were || stretched vppward, two wings of euery one were ioyned one to another, and two couered their bodies.

¹² And they went euery one straight forward: whither the spirit was to goe, they went: and they turned not when they went.

¹³ As for the likenesse of the liuing creatures, their appearance was like burning coles of fire, and like the appearance of lamps: it went vpp and downe among the liuing creatures, and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.

¹⁴ And the liuing creatures ranne, and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

¹⁵ NOW as I behelde the liuing creatures: behold one wheele vpon the earth by the liuing creatures, with his foure faces.

¹⁶ The appearance of the wheelles, and their worke was like vnto the colour of a Berill: and they foure had one likenesse, and their appearance and their worke was as it were a wheele in the middle of a wheele.

¹⁷ When they went, they went vpon their foure sides: and they returned not when they went.

¹⁸ As for their rings, they were so high, that they were dreadful, and their || rings were full of eyes round about them foure.

¹⁹ And when the liuing creatures went,
